OUNTRY	East Germany REPORT
	Units of the IX Mts Rifle Corps Returning from Exercises in the Eastern Portion of Letsling Heath
EVALUATION_	PLACE OBTAINED
DATE OF CO	NTENT
DATE OBTAIN	DATE PREPARED 26 August 1954
REFERENCES
PAGES1	ENCLOSURES (NO. & TYPE)
REMARKS	This is UNEVALUATED
	THIS IS UNEVALUATED
1.0	At 0800 on 6 August 1954, 6 x 85-mm AT guns, 2 light AA guns, about 20 truck and soldiers wearing red-bordered black epaulets were loaded onto a train at the Tangerhuette railroad station. Trucks were seen. An empty train was seen on a siging at 1230 on the same day. Soldiers wearing red-bordered black epaulets were
	and soldiers wearing red-bordered black epaulets were loaded onto a train at the Tangerhuette railroad station. Trucks were seen. An empty train was seen on a siging at 1230 on the same day. Soldiers wearing red-bordered black epaulets were engaged in the loading of boxcars at the loading ramp. Three trucks were seen nearby.
	and soldiers wearing red-bordered black epaulets were loaded onto a train at the Tangerhuette railroad station. Trucks were seen. An empty train was seen on a siging at 1230 on the same day. Soldiers wearing red-bordered black epaulets were engaged in the loading of boxcars at the loading ramp. Three trucks
2.	and soldiers wearing red-bordered black epaulets were loaded onto a train at the Tangerhuette railroad station. Trucks were seen. An empty train was seen on a siging at 1230 on the same day. Soldiers wearing red-bordered black epaulets were engaged in the loading of boxcars at the loading ramp. Three trucks were seen nearby. The tent camp about 2 km north of Tangerhuette which, with several large tents and motor vehicles, was first observed in early August 1954, was still there at 0900 on 6 August. Between 0300 and 1400 on 6 August, several columns entered the Flak Kaserne (5641) in Wismar from the direction of the town. Five x 76.2-mm AT guns, 5 x 97-mm AT guns, 6 mortars, and about 50 trucks with approximately 700
2.	and soldiers wearing red-bordered black epaulets were loaded onto a train at the Tangerhuette railroad station. Trucks were seen. An empty train was seen on a siging at 1230 on the same day. Soldiers wearing red-bordered black epaulets were engaged in the loading of boxcars at the loading ramp. Three trucks were seen nearby. The tent camp about 2 km north of Tangerhuette which, with several large tents and motor vehicles, was first observed in early August 1954, was still there at 0900 on 6 August. Between 0300 and 1400 on 6 August, several columns entered the Flak Kaserne (5641) in Wismar from the direction of the town. Five x 76.2-mm AT guns,
2.	and soldiers wearing red-bordered black epaulets were loaded onto a train at the Tangerhuette railroad station. Trucks were seen. An empty train was seen on a siding at 1230 on the same day. Soldiers wearing red-bordered black epaulets were engaged in the loading of boxcars at the loading ramp. Three trucks were seen nearby. The tent camp about 2 km north of Tangerhuette which, with several large tents and motor vehicles, was first observed in early August 1954, was still there at 0900 on 6 August. Between 0300 and 1400 on 6 August, several columns entered the Flak Kaserne (5641) in Wismar from the direction of the town. Five x 76.2-mm AT guns, 5 x 37-mm AT guns, 6 mortars, and about 50 trucks with approximately 700 soldiers were observed. After the arrival of the columns, the installation was about 77 percent occupied. Comment. Comment.
2.	and soldiers wearing red-bordered black epaulets were loaded onto a train at the Tangerhuette railroad station. Trucks were seen. An empty train was seen on a siging at 1230 on the same day. Soldiers wearing red-bordered black epaulets were engaged in the loading of boxcars at the loading ramp. Three trucks were seen nearby. The tent camp about 2 km north of Tangerhuette which, with several large tents and motor vehicles, was first observed in early August 1954, was still there at 0900 on 6 August. Between 0300 and 1400 on 6 August, several columns entered the Flak Kaserne (5641) in Wismar from the direction of the town. Five x 76.2-mm AT guns, 5 x 77-mm AT guns, 6 morters, and about 50 trucks with approximately 700 soldiers were observed. After the arrival of the columns, the installation was about 75 percent occupied. Comments Gds Mtz Rifle Div from Wismar and corps troops of the INMES Rifle Corps from Schwerin were entrained in Tangerhuette. Elements of the corps probably returned from exercises which started in late July in the eastern portion of Letzling Heath, probably on either side of the Elbe River. Three shipments left Tangerhuette for Wismar and Schwerin on 6 August. The troops which returned to Wismar probably
2.	and soldiers wearing red-bordered black epaulets were loaded onto a train at the Tangerhuette railroad station. Trucks were seen. An empty train was seen on a siging at 1230 on the same day. Soldiers wearing red-bordered black epaulets were engaged in the loading of boxcars at the loading ramp. Three trucks were seen nearby. The tent camp about 2 km north of Tangerhuette which, with several large tents and motor vehicles, was first observed in early August 1954, was still there at 0900 on 6 August. Between 0300 and 1400 on 6 August, several columns entered the Flak Kaserne (5641) in Wismar from the direction of the town. Five x 76.2-mm AT guns, 5 x 97-mm AT guns, 6 mortars, and about 50 trucks with approximately 700 soldiers were observed. After the arrival of the columns, the installation was about 175 percent occupied. Comment. Gds Mtz Rifle Div from Wismar and corps troops of the IX mits Rifle Corps from Schwerin were entrained in Tangerhuette. Elements of the corps probably returned from exercises which started in late July in the eastern portion of Letzling Heath, probably on either side of the Elbe River. Wismar and Schwerin on 6 August. The tent camp north of Tangerhuette was observed in early August by the same source.
2.	and soldiers wearing red-bordered black epaulets were loaded onto a train at the Tangerhuette railroad station. Trucks were seen. An empty train was seen on a siging at 1230 on the same day. Soldiers wearing red-bordered black epaulets were engaged in the loading of boxears at the loading ramp. Three trucks were seen nearby. The tent camp about 2 km north of Tangerhuette which, with several large tents and motor vehicles, was first observed in early August 1954, was still there at 0900 on 6 August. Between 0300 and 1400 on 6 August, several columns entered the Flak Kaserne (5641) in Wismar from the direction of the town. Five x 76.2-mm AT guns, 5 x 97-mm AT guns, 6 mortars, and about 50 trucks with approximately 700 soldiers were observed. After the arrival of the columns, the installation was about 77 percent occupied. Comment.

Approved For Release 2007/06/25 : CIA-RDP80-00810A004900310004-3

25X1 25X1

25X1 25X1

25X1

25X1

25X1 25X1

25X1 25X1

25X1 25X1

25X1

25X1 25X1

25X1